From Auer, Neumarkt, Salurn to Trento

Departure: Auer 244 m, Neumarkt 214 m
Arrival: Trento 250 m
Total kilometre: 45 km
Travel time: 2.50 hours
Map: Wheel leader South of South Tirol

You ride with your bicycle from the “Etschbrücke” (bridge) in Auer on the cycle-path in direction to Neumarkt. If you start from Neumarkt, you have two possibilities. You can start from the resting place opposite the Alps Coliseum or in the “Bahnhofsstraße”. From here you ride your cycle always in the south direction, until short forwards S.Michele (near a restaurant “Da Silvio”); you turn on your right side over the bridge.

You ride the cycle following the sign to Trento and from the edge of the city you ride the cycle to the place on the railway station. There you can leave your bikes, don't forget to lock up!

At the outskirts of Trento (after an underpass), cross the traffic route coming from the highway and over the quite spread sidewalk beside the Adige (along the via Leopardi). Until the fourth street (via Giambattista Lampi) turn left, across a traffic road, through the Pedestrian subway, the wheel pushing, until the Station place. There you can the bicycles turn off, don't forget to lock!

Return over the same route or with the train to Egna/Neumarkt or Ora/Auer.
